

ART FARM CAMP

www.stonycreekfarm.org • info@stonycreekfarm.org • (607) 865-7965

monday thru friday - 9am - 3pm

for kids 5-13yrs

WHAT will kids experience?

Campers will spend mornings on the farm - with the animals and gardens. Afternoons will be spent creating artwork. Art projects will be rooted in the natural surroundings and farmstead. On Fridays we will have an art show from 2:30-3:30pm showcasing our creations. Attendees should bring a bag lunch and a bottle of water. Sessions are limited to 15 kids, so please get in touch right away.

SARA Walsh

artist, teacher, mother

Sara is a Brooklyn based theatre artist and teacher. She also has been teaching art and drama to students in New York City and Chicago since 2001. Professionally, her scenic designs have been seen all over the world, most recently in NYC at The Kitchen and in California at the San Diego museum of art.

KATE Marsiglio

farmer, teacher, mother

Kate has been farming for seven years in Delaware County, NY - raising animals on pasture, vegetables organically, and children lovingly. With her Master's in Education, she has worked with students ranging from preschool to college-age in public and private schools as well as on the farm.
